

• PROJECT NAME	BUZÓN POR LA VIDA
• TYPE OF PRACTICE	Participatory
• CITIES AND/OR COMMUNITIES, COUNTRY/IES	Community of Chabás, Argentina (later adopted by other cities and provinces.
• IMPLEMENTED SINCE...	1999
• BRIEF DESCRIPTION	Give victims of crime and the general public the opportunity to anonymously denounce drugs trafficking. The authorities receive the notes posted in the box periodically.
• PROMOTING OR LEADING ENTITIES	Community Board for Urban Safety.
• PARTICIPANTS	Community Board Federal Prosecutor
• OBJETIVES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve institutional capacity and increase citizens' participation. • Combat drugs trafficking.
• TARGETS	General public.
• MAIN RESULTS	At the first opening, the box contained 10 notes; at the last one there were over 50.
• METHODOLOGY	Residents anonymously deposit their notes describing where illegal substances are being sold in the box which is periodically opened and dealt with by the authorities.
• EVALUATION INDICATORS / METHOD	The number of notes deposited in the box.
• DEGREE OF SUCCESS (EVALUATION RESULTS)	From 10 notes at the first opening to over 50 at the last.
• CONTACT
• PROJECT LINKS
• PROJECT LOGO
• OBSERVATIONS

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• SIMILAR PROJECTS	Many other boxes have been installed in other cities and provinces across the country.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• OTHER SOURCES OF INFORMATION	